COURSE ON OFFENCES AGAINST WOMEN: APPLICATION OF NEW CRIMINAL LAWS

02 to 06 June, 2025

NATIONAL FORENSIC SCIENCES UNIVERSITY, DELHI CAMPUS
SECTOR- 3, ROHINI, NEW DELHI

ABOUT THE COURSE:

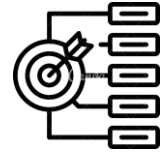

Offenses against women encompass a wide range of crimes that predominantly or disproportionately affect women due to their gender. These crimes, rooted in gender inequality and societal norms, have significant physical, psychological, and socio-economic impacts on victims. Addressing these offenses requires a multifaceted approach, including stringent legal reforms, effective enforcement, societal changes, and robust support systems for victims. By implementing these strategies, societies can move towards greater gender equality and ensure the safety and dignity of all women.

The implementation of BNS, BNSS and BSA aim to address the unique challenges faced by women and to create a safer and more just society. As criminal tactics continue to evolve, governments must remain vigilant and proactive in adapting their legal frameworks to effectively combat these issues while upholding the principles of justice and democracy.

In this backdrop, The University is organizing a five days training course on the application of new Criminal Laws pertaining to Offences against Women in India for the Senior Officers from Police, prosecution, Judiciary and from Defence Services.

COURSE OBJECTIVES:

- To apprise the trainees on the overview of New Criminal Laws Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, Bharatiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita and the Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam.
