

Training Course on New Criminal Laws: Application in Criminal Justice Process (28 Jul-01 Aug, 2025)

National Forensic Sciences University

Knowledge | Wisdom | Fulfilment

An Institution of National Importance

(Ministry of Home Affairs, Government of India)

ABOUT THE COURSE

The legislative landscape in India has recently witnessed significant changes with the passing of transformative laws such as The Bharatiya Nagrik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam (BSA), and Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) by the Parliament. These laws bring about fundamental shifts in the Criminal Justice Adjudication system, necessitating a thorough understanding of their provisions. With these comprehensive changes, arises the need of capacity building and sensitisation in this regard for better realization of envisioned and intended reforms.

Therefore, this five day training course aims to equip officers with the knowledge and skills necessary to navigate the complexities of the criminal justice system effectively in the light of New Criminal Laws in India.

COURSE OBJECTIVES

- To familiarize the participants with the latest legislative ensuring they have a comprehensive understanding of the legal framework they must operate within.
- To explore the practical applications of these new laws within the criminal justice process.
- To undergo in-depth analysis of how the laws impact investigative procedures, evidence collection, and other CJA Process.
- To update the participants regarding the Forensic tools and tech which are useful for effective investigation and successful prosecution.
- To develop an understanding of the role and responsibilities of Criminal Justice Functionaries in handling Criminal Cases.
- To introduce the participants with the various forensic tools and techniques for collection, acquisition and preservation of evidences